

Advanced

Boost security measures with video integration for access control.

Mobile

Control cameras and view live footage and more all on your mobile devices.

Effortless

Simplify access control and surveillance management with a unified platform.

Beyond CLOUD ACCESS We Grant CONFIDENCE

FEATURES

- Analyze and manage evidence
- Get full situational awareness
- Location Map shows all cameras
- Ensure cybersecurity
- Build the solution you need with any camera

Why Choose Millennium Video Integrations?

The Millennium Ultra integrates with leading video management software systems, offering a powerful synergy of top-tier access control security and industry-recognized video management solutions.

- Achieve superior access control security management.
- Conveniently oversee access control systems and surveillance videos in one place for streamlined monitoring, enjoying the same exceptional functionality as if you were using each system independently.
- Benefit from industry-recognized video management solutions.
- Generate detailed reports and gain comprehensive insights into access control and surveillance data.
- Adapt to changing needs with a scalable solution that grows with your requirements.
- MGI Mobile Client App allows system administrators access to the system from anywhere and see all cameras through any mobile device.

Complete Surveillance Solutions